

Name _____ Parody

Parody

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Parody is the opposite of satire.

2. Because parody is a literary technique, it only applies to written works.

3. Spoof is another word for parody.

4. Parodies are works of social criticism.

5. Parody is often intended as a criticism or commentary on the original work, the person who created it, or something else related to the work.

6. A parody is always intended to be complimentary of the work being imitated.

7. The purpose of a parody is to be funny.

8. There are many examples of parodies in modern culture.

9. The main technique of parody is imitation.

