

Name _____

The Big Birthday Bash at Blossom Bluff

Blossom Bluff was the most magical place in town. Every year, the animals of the bluff gathered to celebrate everyone's birthday at once. This year, Bella the Bunny and Blue the Bird were in charge of planning the big bash.

Bella hopped around, placing bright balloons everywhere. Blue flapped his wings, hanging glittery banners that fluttered in the breeze. The entire bluff was buzzing with excitement.

The day of the bash arrived, and Bella greeted everyone with a warm smile. "Welcome to the best birthday bash at Blossom Bluff!" she cheered. Blue chirped happily, and the crowd of animals clapped and cheered.

First, there was a blueberry pie eating contest. Blake the Bear won by a landslide, with blueberry filling all over his black fur. Then, everyone played blindfold games, trying to pin the tail on the donkey and bursting with laughter at each miss.

Next, Bella and Blue brought out a huge birthday cake decorated with bluebells. The cake was as tall as Bella and smelled delightful. All the animals blew out the candles together, and the bluff was filled with the delicious scent of vanilla and blueberries.

After cake, they played a game called "Blow the Biggest Bubble." The animals took turns trying to blow the largest bubble they could. Benny the Beaver won, and his bubble was so big it almost floated him away!

As the sun began to set, Bella and Blue handed out glittery blue balloons to everyone. The bluff sparkled in the fading light, and everyone agreed it was the best birthday bash ever.

The animals gathered in a big circle, holding hands (or paws, or wings), and sang a birthday song together. Bella and Blue looked at each other and smiled, knowing they had made Blossom Bluff's birthday bash the best one yet.