The Brave Mice

Once upon a time, there were two brave mice named Mike and Jane. They lived in a small house by a wide lake. Mike and Jane loved to play and explore every day.

One fine day, they decided to make a big cake. They went to the store and got some rice, cake mix, and a lime. Mike and Jane mixed and baked the cake. The cake was huge and smelled so nice!

After baking, they took the cake to the lake. They sat on a nice, soft mat and shared the cake. While they ate, they saw a huge wave in the lake. It made a loud noise, and they were a bit scared.

But then they saw a big whale! The whale was very nice and gave them a ride on its back. Mike and Jane waved at the whale as it swam away. They had a great day and went home with big smiles on their faces.
