

Name _____

The Magic of Spring, Thrift, and Shrub

In a land far away, there was a magical garden. In this garden, three little friends named Spring, Thrift, and Shrub lived. They loved to play and have fun every day.

One sunny morning, Spring, the fairy, said, "Let's find something special!" Thrift, the tiny bird, chirped with joy. Shrub, the clever squirrel, twitched his tail and agreed.

They hopped and skipped through the garden. They saw bright flowers, fresh green grass, and tall trees. Suddenly, they found a small, shiny box hidden in the bushes. "What could it be?" asked Shrub. Thrift took a closer look and said, "It's a gift!"

Together, they opened the box and found three shiny rings. "Wow, this is wonderful!" said Spring. Thrift and Shrub cheered. They decided to share the rings and wear them as a symbol of their friendship.

That night, Spring, Thrift, and Shrub had a big celebration. They laughed, danced, and enjoyed their magical garden. The friends knew that their special find had made their bond even stronger.

