

Name _____

The Bridge to Fudge Village

Once upon a time, there was a tiny village called Fudge Village, nestled on the edge of a vast and enchanted forest. The village was famous for its delicious fudge, made from the finest ingredients found in the forest. The people of Fudge Village were happy and friendly, always ready to share a piece of their delightful fudge.

One day, a young boy named Ridge discovered a secret map hidden in his grandfather's old chest. The map showed the way to a hidden bridge that led to a magical place called the Fudge Fountain. According to the map, the Fudge Fountain could make endless fudge with just one wish.

Excited by his discovery, Ridge decided to follow the map. He packed a small bag with some fudge for the journey and set off into the forest. Along the way, Ridge met a hedgehog named Pudge. Pudge was a chubby little hedgehog with a fondness for fudge. He asked Ridge if he could join him on his adventure. Ridge happily agreed.

As they ventured deeper into the forest, they encountered a giant hedge blocking their path. The hedge was so thick that they couldn't see through it. Ridge and Pudge worked together to find a way around it. After some effort, they found a small gap and squeezed through, only to find a rickety old bridge hanging over a deep gorge.

Ridge and Pudge carefully crossed the bridge, holding their breath with each step. When they reached the other side, they found themselves in a beautiful meadow filled with colorful flowers and butterflies. In the center of the meadow, there was the legendary Fudge Fountain, sparkling under the sunlight.

Ridge and Pudge approached the fountain and made their wish for endless fudge. Suddenly, the fountain started flowing with the creamiest, most delicious fudge they had ever seen. They filled their bags with fudge and hurried back to Fudge Village to share their incredible discovery.

The villagers were overjoyed and celebrated Ridge and Pudge as heroes. From that day on, Fudge Village never ran out of fudge, thanks to the magical Fudge Fountain and the bravery of Ridge and Pudge.

