

Name _____

Oliver's Over-the-Top Adventure

Oliver was an overjoyed puppy who loved to go on adventures. One bright morning, he decided to explore the fields beyond his backyard. As he bounded over the fence, he saw an oversized butterfly fluttering nearby.

Excitedly, Oliver chased the butterfly, but he tripped over a hidden root and tumbled into an overgrown patch of grass. Shaking himself off, he noticed an overlook in the distance and decided to head that way.

On his way, Oliver found an overflowing basket of apples under a tree. His nose twitched as he smelled the sweet fruit, but he knew he couldn't carry any with him. He continued his journey and soon came across a pond with an overabundance of lily pads.

Oliver carefully stepped on the lily pads, trying not to fall into the water. Finally, he reached the overlook and saw the entire valley spread out below him, bathed in the glow of the sunset. Overwhelmed with happiness, Oliver knew this was a day he would always remember.