Pirate Treasure Hunt

On a calm island, Captain Bill searched for hidden treasure.

He looked carefully at the old map, checking each detail.

His parrot perched on his shoulder, staying very still.

A gentle breeze rustled the palm leaves above them. The silent crew waited by the ship, eager to help dig. Bill's shovel hit something hard in the soft soil. He knelt down and pulled out a small chest.

With a quick smile, he opened it to reveal sparkling gold coins and colorful jewels. The whole crew cheered loudly, celebrating their exciting find.
