Invisible Kitten

Sally found a kitten that was invisible. She named her Fluffy because of her soft purr. Whenever Fluffy meowed, it sounded like a bell ringing. Sally's friends couldn't believe she had an invisible pet.

Fluffy loved to nap on Sally's windowsill. In the morning, Sally could feel Fluffy snuggle against her pillow. One day, Sally brought Fluffy to school, and everyone was amazed. They watched in awe as Fluffy chased a bouncing ball.

At night, Fluffy slept quietly beside Sally, making her feel safe. Sally knew Fluffy was the best kitten in the world, even if nobody could see her.
