

Name _____

Nighttime Delights

Every night, the moon
shines bright in the sky.

Fireflies light up the night with their tiny lights. An owl's flight is silent as it hunts in the twilight.

In the distance, you might hear a coyote's high-pitched cry. The stars form constellations that highlight the darkness. Kids lie in their beds, feeling the delight of the night's sights and sounds.