The Magic Paintbrush

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Neil. Neil found a magic paintbrush in the forest. The paintbrush could paint anything he wished for. Neil was excited to try it out.

First, Neil painted a rainbow. The colors were bright and pretty. Next, he painted a tall mountain with snow on its peak. The mountain looked real and amazing. Then, Neil painted a reindeer. The reindeer came to life and started to play with Neil. They ran around and had so much fun together.

Neil decided to paint a big feast with cakes, pies, and ice cream. The feast appeared, and Neil shared it with his new friend, the reindeer. They enjoyed every bite.

At the end of the day, Neil painted a cozy bed. He and the reindeer lay down and fell asleep, dreaming of more magical adventures.
