

Name _____

Roaming with the Floating Boats

In a cheerful harbor town called Seaside Cove, there lived a group of adventurous boats. Among them was Bella, a bright blue sailboat with a big, billowing sail. Bella loved to roam the open ocean, feeling the gentle breeze beneath her sail.

One sunny morning, Bella invited her friends, Toby the tugboat and Lola the luxury yacht, to join her on a special adventure. They set sail together, gliding gracefully across the shimmering sea.

As they sailed, they spotted playful dolphins leaping in the waves and colorful fish darting below. Bella led the way with her trusty compass, guiding them to a hidden cove where they found a treasure chest filled with delicious treats. They cheered with joy as they enjoyed their snacks, knowing that their friendship was the greatest treasure of all.

