

Name _____

The Tiny Tangle: Santa's Miniature Christmas Adventure

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Jingle decided to prank Santa Claus because he loved playing tricks and jokes on others. The result of his prank was that the shrinking potion only affected the reindeer, causing a mishap that required him to save Christmas.
2. Jingle and his team showed determination and teamwork by working together to overcome obstacles and deliver presents despite the challenges they faced. They used their unique abilities and resources to ensure Christmas was saved.
3. The lesson of the story is that even mischievous individuals like Jingle can make a positive impact when they put their skills and determination to good use. Jingle changed from a prankster to a hero by saving Christmas.
4. Answers may vary. Some possible responses could include finding a way to reverse the shrinking potion or seeking help from other magical creatures in the North Pole.

