The Magical Hanukkah Pastries

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sarah's magical pastries transformed her bakery into a place of joy and brought happiness and warmth to the entire town during Hanukkah. People came together to celebrate, and their spirits were lifted.
2. The elderly woman felt youthful and energetic after eating a pastry because the magic in the pastry brought back happy memories of her youth and filled her with the spirit of celebration.
3. Answers may vary. For example, someone might want the pastry to make them feel more confident, like the shy boy, so they could try new things without fear.
4. One lesson we can learn from Sarah's story is that sharing joy and happiness with others can create a wonderful sense of community and bring people closer together during special times like Hanukkah.
