Protecting Nature

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. If I were the Once-ler, I would have planted new trees as I used them to make sure the forest stayed healthy.
2. The story relates to real-life issues like deforestation, pollution, and endangered animals.
3. People today can learn to balance progress with protecting nature, just like the Once-ler should have.
4. The child might succeed if they take care of the seed and teach others to protect the trees.
