Central Idea

Kelly loves rainy days. When it is raining, she gets to use her big pink and purple umbrella. She also gets to wear her bright yellow slicker and her blue rubber rain boots. She loves to splash around in the puddles while listening to the rain drumming down on the umbrella. She loves the smell of rain. Often when she is outside enjoying it, she stops whatever she is doing at the moment and takes a deep, delicious breath. Sometimes she steps out from under her umbrella, lifts her face up to the sky, and enjoys the cool raindrops on her face.
