

ANSWERS

1. A motif is a recurring structure, contrast, or literary device that is related to the theme.
2. The repetition of motifs is one way that authors create theme and mood in a literary work. They also help engage the readers in the story and help them to grasp important thematic concepts