

Name _____

The Flag Hunter's Quest

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Max considered it important to restore the torn American flag because he recognized its significance as a symbol of freedom, unity, and patriotism. He felt a deep sense of responsibility to preserve this symbol of his country's values and ideals.
2. Max's quest went beyond the physical act of restoring a flag by connecting him with his community and its history. Through his journey, he learned about the flag's history and significance, and he engaged with veterans and local organizations. This quest strengthened his sense of patriotism and unity with his community.
3. The flag restoration ceremony meant a great deal to Max and the community. It was a symbol of their unity, honor, and patriotism. It signified the completion of Max's quest and the restoration of a cherished symbol. The ceremony brought the community together, fostering a sense of pride and accomplishment while reinforcing the flag's importance in their lives.

