

Name _____

Love Across Cultures: A Sweet Surprise

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Maya and Hiroshi shared their cultural experiences and passions, which allowed them to learn from each other and appreciate their backgrounds. This shared interest in their cultures deepened their connection.
2. Mr. Matchmaker likely saw something special in Maya and Hiroshi's connection and wanted to help them find love and happiness. He might have believed that their differences could create a unique and strong bond.
3. Possible challenges could include misunderstandings due to cultural norms, differences in family expectations, or adapting to each other's customs and traditions.
4. Maya may have admired Hiroshi's artistic talents and quiet determination, while Hiroshi may have been drawn to Maya's vibrant personality, passion for dance, and zest for life.

