Mysterious Snape

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Students should describe a personal experience where they misjudged someone and what they learned from it.
2. Answers may vary. Some may argue Snape is a good person because he protects Harry, while others may say he is in between because of his harsh attitude.
3. Snape might hide his true intentions because he does not want people to know he cares or because he has a complicated past.
4. Snape adds mystery because his actions are confusing, making readers wonder if he is good or bad until the truth is revealed.
