

Name _____

Calpurnia's Warning

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Some may say yes because the dream clearly warned him of danger, while others may argue that Caesar was fated to die no matter what.
2. The scene shows that pride can make people ignore good advice, even when it could save their lives.
3. Like the soothsayer's warning, Calpurnia's dream was a clear sign of danger, but Caesar ignored it both times.
4. Answers will vary, but students should discuss whether women's opinions in leadership are valued more today than in ancient Rome.

