

Name _____

Macduff's Revenge

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Responses may vary, but here are sample answers.)

1. Macduff fights for justice, while Macbeth fights only for power, showing that Macduff is noble and brave.
2. Some may say yes because Macduff fights for his country, while others may argue that revenge is not always heroic.
3. If Macduff had not challenged Macbeth, Scotland might have remained under a cruel ruler, or someone else would have had to fight him.
4. Macduff's role shows that standing up against evil is important and that true leaders fight for justice, not for power.
