

Name _____

Frosty's Friendship Adventure

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Frosty's magical abilities allowed him to bring joy and laughter to Snowville, making it easier for Sally to make new friends. His lively and mischievous personality added excitement to their adventures.
2. Mr. Grumpy started laughing because he found the snowball incident unexpected and humorous. It changed him by making him more open to having fun and socializing with others.
3. The magical snowflake cookies were a unique and delightful treat that sparked the Candy family's interest and allowed them to connect with Sally. The cookies served as an icebreaker and a way to overcome their shyness.
4. Creative ideas for continuing their adventures could include organizing a winter talent show, hosting a snow sculpture competition, or even starting a snowball fight tournament in Snowville. These activities would bring the community together and provide opportunities for more friendships to blossom.

