

Name _____

The Magical Palette of Pi

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Mia notice one sunny morning that changed the way she painted?
 - a) She noticed a rainbow outside her window.
 - b) She felt an irresistible urge to write down the digits of Pi.
 - c) She found a new set of paintbrushes.
 - d) She decided to switch to acrylic paints.

2. How did Mia's magical palette work?
 - a) Each digit of Pi corresponded to a unique musical note.
 - b) Each digit of Pi corresponded to a unique color.
 - c) Each digit of Pi corresponded to a unique sculpture.
 - d) Each digit of Pi corresponded to a unique dance move.

3. What happened to Mia's paintings when she used the magical palette of Pi?
 - a) They turned black and white.
 - b) They remained the same as her previous artworks.
 - c) They came alive with intricate patterns and mesmerizing colors.
 - d) They became invisible.

4. How did Mia's artwork affect people who viewed it?
 - a) It put them to sleep.
 - b) It made them feel hungry.
 - c) It could evoke emotions and memories.
 - d) It made them feel cold.

5. What did Mia's art teach people?
 - a) The importance of math.
 - b) The beauty of embracing the unexpected.
 - c) How to paint like a famous artist.
 - d) The history of famous paintings.

