

Name _____

A Mother's Love

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Voldemort want to kill Harry as a baby?
 - a) He was jealous of Harry's parents
 - b) Harry had stolen something from him
 - c) A prophecy said Harry might defeat him
 - d) Dumbledore told him to

2. What did Lily do to protect Harry?
 - a) She used a powerful spell to fight Voldemort
 - b) She sacrificed herself so he could live
 - c) She hid Harry in another country
 - d) She asked Snape to protect him

3. How did Lily's sacrifice protect Harry?
 - a) It created a magical shield that made him invisible
 - b) It left a magical mark of love that protected him from Voldemort's spell
 - c) It made Harry a powerful wizard instantly
 - d) It gave Harry the ability to defeat Voldemort as a baby

4. What does Lily's sacrifice teach about love?
 - a) Love is only important between family members
 - b) Love makes people weak and afraid
 - c) Love is not as important as strength and power
 - d) Love is a form of powerful magic that can protect others

5. How does Harry's understanding of sacrifice change by the end of the book?
 - a) He realizes that true bravery comes from protecting others, not just fighting
 - b) He learns that he must always avoid danger
 - c) He decides he does not need friends or family
 - d) He understands that he is just lucky and not special

