

Name _____

Power Struggles

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why do Brutus and Cassius decide to kill Caesar?
 - a) They want to take over Rome themselves.
 - b) They are angry because Caesar ignored them.
 - c) They believe Caesar will become a king and take away freedom.
 - d) They were forced to by Mark Antony.

2. How does Mark Antony influence the people after Caesar's death?
 - a) He gives them money to support him.
 - b) He uses a powerful speech to turn them against Brutus and Cassius.
 - c) He tells them Brutus is the rightful leader.
 - d) He asks them to vote for a new ruler.

3. What is one way Julius Caesar connects to modern society?
 - a) It shows that people in power can use persuasion to influence others.
 - b) It teaches people how to become kings.
 - c) It proves that democracy always wins.
 - d) It tells people never to trust the government.

4. What lesson does the play teach about political power?
 - a) Too much power can cause conflict and division.
 - b) Only kings should rule countries.
 - c) Leaders should never listen to their people.
 - d) The best leaders always act alone.

5. Why is it important to think critically about what leaders say?
 - a) Because leaders always lie.
 - b) Because all leaders are bad.
 - c) Because it helps people become kings.
 - d) Because words can be used to influence people's opinions.

