

Name _____

Amy's Transformation

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does Amy care about most at the beginning of the novel?
 - a) Family and kindness
 - b) Helping the poor
 - c) Becoming a great scientist
 - d) Wealth, beauty, and admiration

2. How does Amy first begin to change?
 - a) When she starts living with Aunt March and realizes that money alone doesn't bring happiness
 - b) When she gets everything she ever wanted
 - c) When she wins an art contest
 - d) When she refuses to travel to Europe

3. What does Amy learn about her dream of becoming an artist?
 - a) That she is the best artist in the world
 - b) That art is only valuable if it makes money
 - c) That she enjoys art, but she may not be the greatest artist
 - d) That she no longer likes art at all

4. Why does Amy choose to marry Laurie?
 - a) Because he is rich
 - b) Because she loves and respects him
 - c) Because Aunt March tells her to
 - d) Because she wants to make Jo jealous

5. What is the main lesson Amy's journey teaches?
 - a) That being rich is the most important thing in life
 - b) That beauty is more valuable than kindness
 - c) That true success comes from character, hard work, and love
 - d) That giving up dreams always leads to happiness

