

Name _____

Fate's Power

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the White family hope to do by using the monkey's paw?
 - a) Destroy the paw's power.
 - b) Prove that magic is not real.
 - c) Bring Sergeant-Major Morris back.
 - d) Gain control over their future.

2. How does the first wish show that fate cannot be controlled?
 - a) Mr. White wishes for money, but his son dies as a result.
 - b) The money appears instantly, making them happy.
 - c) Herbert gets a new job instead of dying.
 - d) The wish has no effect at all.

3. What does the knocking at the door suggest?
 - a) Fate may have twisted the second wish in a terrible way.
 - b) Herbert has returned exactly as he was before.
 - c) The wish did not work, and the knocking is just the wind.
 - d) The factory representative has returned with more money.

4. Why does Mr. White make the final wish?
 - a) He is curious to see what will happen next.
 - b) He hopes to wish for more money.
 - c) He wants to remove whatever is outside before Mrs. White opens the door.
 - d) He wants to bring Herbert back again.

5. What does the story suggest about human control over fate?
 - a) Wishes always lead to happiness.
 - b) Humans cannot change fate without facing consequences.
 - c) Magic can solve all problems.
 - d) People can easily change their future without risk.

