

Name _____

A New Kind of Fairy Tale

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is Dorothy different from a traditional fairy tale hero?
 - a) She leads her own adventure
 - b) She waits for a prince to save her
 - c) She has magical powers
 - d) She is a queen from the beginning
2. What is unusual about Dorothy's friends compared to traditional fairy tale heroes?
 - a) They are all magical creatures
 - b) They seem weak but prove to be strong
 - c) They are actually villains in disguise
 - d) They betray Dorothy on her journey
3. How does The Wonderful Wizard of Oz challenge the idea of magic in fairy tales?
 - a) It shows that magic always makes life easier
 - b) It proves that magic is more powerful than bravery
 - c) The Wizard is not actually magical, and Dorothy succeeds without spells
 - d) It teaches that only witches can use magic
4. What do the Scarecrow, Tin Woodman, and Cowardly Lion show about being a hero?
 - a) That only strong warriors can be heroes
 - b) That intelligence, kindness, and courage can make someone strong
 - c) That heroes must always fight battles
 - d) That they need the Wizard's magic to be brave
5. What is the main lesson The Wonderful Wizard of Oz teaches about fairy tales?
 - a) That traditional fairy tales are the only way to tell a good story
 - b) That only magic can help heroes succeed
 - c) That Dorothy should have stayed in Oz forever
 - d) That heroes can come in all forms, and magic is not always the answer

