

Name _____

The Tree's Revenge

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you were one of the humans on Arbor Day. How would you have felt when Oakley's plan prevented you from carving his bark? What lesson do you think you would have learned?
2. Oakley's plan involved humor and distraction. Can you think of other ways he could have taught the humans a lesson without being mean or harmful?
3. Why do you think Oakley decided to involve his forest friends in his plan?
4. How do you think the humans' behavior might change in the future Arbor Days after Oakley's clever plan?

