

Name _____

Zero-Gravity Mathletes: A Cosmic Challenge

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think the experience of competing in zero gravity would affect the mathletes' problem-solving skills and adaptability?
2. If you were a mathlete in this competition, what strategies would you use to excel in the zero-gravity environment?
3. What advantages do you think mathletes gain from participating in unique and challenging competitions like this one?
4. In what ways do you think the skills learned in this competition could be applied to real-world situations in the future?

