The Time-Traveling Thanksgiving Play

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you were one of the children in the play, how would you have felt during the time-traveling adventure? How might this experience have changed your understanding of Thanksgiving?
2. Why do you think Mia's idea of imagining the first Thanksgiving resonated with the other children and inspired them to create a special play?
3. What do you believe is the most important lesson the children learned during their journey back to the first Thanksgiving, and how could they apply it to their lives?
4. If you were to create a sequel to this story, where the children embark on another imaginative adventure, what would it be about, and why? How would it teach a valuable lesson?
