

Name _____

The Great Cafeteria Cook-Off

Short Answer Key

1. Pleasantville Elementary prepared macaroni and cheese, and Pleasantville Middle School prepared chicken pot pie.
2. The judges were the mayor and two local food critics. At the end, they decided to declare both schools winners.
3. On the day of the cook-off, the town square transformed into a lively food festival with booths for each school. It smelled like mouthwatering aromas from the delicious dishes being prepared.
4. The competition ended with no clear winner, and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Martinez reacted by shaking hands and realizing that their rivalry had brought their schools and the town together in a delicious way.
5. Pleasantville Elementary and Pleasantville Middle School started the tradition of hosting an annual community cook-off.

