

Name _____

A Mother's Love

Short Answer Key

1. Lily's sacrifice is important because it protects Harry and teaches the lesson that love is stronger than evil.
2. Dumbledore tells Harry that Lily's love left him with a magical protection, keeping him safe from Voldemort.
3. Lily gave her life to protect someone else, while Voldemort only seeks power for himself.
4. Harry learns that bravery is not about strength alone, but about making selfless choices for others.
5. Voldemort could not understand Lily's love because he had never experienced love himself, only fear and power.

