

Name _____

Power Struggles

Short Answer Key

1. Rome had a republic, where leaders were chosen instead of kings ruling.
2. The senators thought they were protecting Rome, but their actions caused war and destruction.
3. Antony used emotion, sarcasm, and Caesar's will to change the crowd's opinion.
4. Leaders today use speeches, social media, and debates to persuade people.
5. The play shows that some leaders may be too ambitious or manipulative, so we should question their true intentions.

