

Name _____

Flowers of Change

Short Answer Key

1. She loved flowers, the ocean, and the way nature made her feel happy.
2. She saw a patch of wild lupines and realized that flowers could bring joy and beauty to others.
3. The flowers inspired people to plant gardens, care for nature, and find their own ways to add beauty.
4. They symbolize kindness, growth, and the power of small actions to create lasting change.
5. People can pick up litter, plant trees, create art, or help others in small ways.

