

Name _____

The Spooky Surprise Potion

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Dr. Green wanted to bring her Halloween decorations to life to create a unique and exciting Halloween experience for her friends and town.
2. The living decorations initially entertained the guests but started causing trouble as the night went on. They became a problem because they were mischievous and disruptive, knocking over furniture and hiding snacks.
3. Dr. Green learned that while it's fun to experiment with magic potions, some things are better left as decorations, and it's essential to be careful with the effects of her experiments.
4. Answers may vary but should include ideas about being cautious, planning ahead, and having a way to control the living decorations' behavior.

