

Name _____

Mouse Emotions

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Example: "I felt like the mouse on my first day of school because I was so excited to meet my new teacher and friends."
2. Some students may say yes because curiosity helps people learn, while others may say no because too much curiosity can cause distractions.
3. Some may think the teacher enjoys the mouse's excitement, while others may think it would be hard to keep him focused.
4. Answers will vary. Example: "I think the mouse would still be excited, but he might remember what happened last time and try to be more careful."
