

Name _____

The Voyage of Consequences

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the story an allegory for?
  - A. The consequences of exploration and colonization
  - B. Christopher Columbus's personal journey
  - C. The discovery of new lands
  - D. The adventures of sailors

2. What did Columbus and his crew bring with them to the newfound lands?
  - A. Only their ships
  - B. Technology and diseases
  - C. Indigenous flora and fauna
  - D. Non-native species

3. What impact did the introduction of non-native species have on the environment?
  - A. It had no impact.
  - B. It led to the decline of indigenous flora and fauna.
  - C. It improved the ecosystem.
  - D. It made the environment more diverse.

4. How did diseases brought by the explorers affect native populations?
  - A. They had no effect.
  - B. They made native populations stronger.
  - C. They devastated native populations.
  - D. They helped native populations thrive.

5. What happened to the environment of the newfound lands as a result of exploration and colonization?
  - A. It remained unchanged.
  - B. It became even more pristine.
  - C. It suffered from deforestation and pollution.
  - D. It improved over time.

