

Conditional Type 2

A conditional sentence expresses that one thing is dependent on something else. There are several types of conditional sentences. A Conditional Type 2 sentence describes a hypothetical condition and its probable result. It is formed by combining an "if" clause with a main clause.

Type	Verb Tense of the "if" Clause	Verb Tense of the Main Clause
Two	Simple past	Present conditional or Present continuous conditional

Examples: If I was rich, I would buy a big house.

If I spoke French, I would be living in Paris.

DIRECTIONS: Complete each Conditional Type 0 sentence by adding a main clause.

If Clause	Main Clause
If I fell down
If I ate a sandwich
If I had more energy
If it were a weekday
