

Name _____ Everyday Edits

Everyday Edits

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite the sentences with corrections.

Edgar degas was a nineteenth century french artist. His most famous painting feature Ballet Dancers. Edgar showed an ealy aptitude for art.

Edgar studied art by traveling to art museums and copying famous paintings In 1859, he submitted a painting to the Salon, the oficial art exhibition in France, but it didn't fit their definition of aceptable art.

Edgar and his friends created paintings alive with both light color. They became known as the Impressionists when a critic noted that their paintings seemed to only be impresions" rather than finished work.
