

Dangling Modifiers

DIRECTIONS: Correct dangling modifiers.

1. Barking in his crate, the man went to check on the dog.
2. Failing to do my homework, my grade suffered.
3. My sister that I bought yesterday wore the shirt.
4. The dog laid down on the sofa that was trying to get our attention.
5. My sister curled up under a blanket who was not feeling well.
6. Frustrated and tired, the task was more than I could handle.
7. Billowing in the wind, my mother closed the window to stop the curtains.