

Cause and Effect Outline

I Introduction

- A. Background information
- B. Hook your reader
- C. Deeper dive into background information
- D. Thesis statement: present main idea and outline key points

II Body

A. Introduce causes of topic

- 1. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 2. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 3. Supporting detail/evidence/example

Transition...

B. Discuss effects of topic and link them to specific cases(s)

- 1. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 2. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 3. Supporting detail/evidence/example

Transition...

C. Discuss possible solutions to mitigate the effects

- 1. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 2. Supporting detail/evidence/example
- 3. Supporting detail/evidence/example

Transition...

III Conclusion

- A. Restate thesis statement
- B. Summarize main points and prove your ideas can help mitigate the effects

