

Name _____

Division Word Problems

1. In a scientific study, a researcher needs to analyze 560 DNA samples. If the samples are to be distributed among 8 laboratories for analysis, with each laboratory receiving an equal number of samples, how many samples will each laboratory analyze?
2. A tech company has developed a new software product with 480 lines of code. If they want to assign the code equally among 12 programmers for debugging, how many lines of code will each programmer debug?
3. A charity organization received a donation of $2,160. If the money is to be divided equally among 9 different projects, how much money will each project receive?
4. A farmer harvested 720 apples from his orchard. If he wants to pack them into crates with an equal number of apples per crate and he has 12 crates available, how many apples will be in each crate?
5. A bookstore received a shipment of 540 books. If they want to display them on shelves with an equal number of books on each shelf and they have 15 shelves available, how many books will be on each shelf?
6. A construction project requires laying 600 bricks. If the bricks are to be divided equally among 10 workers, how many bricks will each worker need to lay?
7. A classroom of 35 students collectively needs to solve 525 math problems. If they work together and divide the problems equally among themselves, how many problems will each student solve?
8. A company produced 480 units of a new product in a day. If they need to distribute them evenly among 6 warehouses, how many units will each warehouse receive?
9. A sports team scored 450 points in a season. If they played 15 games, with each game being equally important, how many points did they score per game on average?
10. A group of 600 students is planning a field trip. If they need to rent 8 buses to accommodate everyone and distribute the students equally among the buses, how many students will be on each bus?

