Milo the Mouse

Milo the mouse loved exploring the attic. One day, he found a tiny, old suitcase. When he opened it, he discovered a pair of sparkly shoes. "Magic shoes!" Milo squeaked. He slipped them on, and suddenly, his feet began to tap. Tap-tap-tap! Milo couldn't stop dancing! He twirled and spun, knocking over a stack of books. "What's all that noise?" called his friend Bella the bird. "Look! The shoes make me dance!" Milo laughed. Bella joined in, flapping her wings in time with Milo's taps. They laughed and danced until the sun set, turning the attic into a little party.
