

ANSWERS

Pathetic Fallacy

Pathetic fallacy is a figure of speech and not a reasoning error. In the pathetic fallacy, human emotions are attributed to inanimate things in nature. Pathetic fallacy is often used intentionally in literature to help create mood. There is only one type of pathetic fallacy.

Logical Fallacy

A logical fallacy is an illogical or misleading argument. A fallacy occurs when a person makes a mistake when drawing a conclusion. Logical fallacy can be created out of ignorance or intention. There are many different types of logical fallacies.

Both Pathetic Fallacy and Logical Fallacy

Neither are factually or logically correct.