

Name _____

Saving the Legacy

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think the community in the story was so determined to preserve the Freedom House and its connection to Martin Luther King Jr.?
2. How did Emma and her friends contribute to the restoration project, and what does their involvement teach us about the power of community and youth engagement?
3. What role do you think historical landmarks like the Freedom House play in preserving the lessons and memories of the past for future generations?
4. In your opinion, how does the restoration of the Freedom House in the story reflect the broader importance of preserving historical landmarks and cultural heritage in our own world?

