

Name _____

The Hanukkah Book Club Adventures

Short Answer Key

1. The friends started "The Hanukkah Book Club Adventures" because they wanted to learn more about Hanukkah and uncover hidden stories. Their first book was titled "The Secrets of Hanukkah: Uncovering Hidden Stories."
2. The friends started a new Hanukkah tradition in Willowbrook after reading a story about a family that made and gave away sufganiyot to their neighbors during Hanukkah. This inspired them to bake sufganiyot together and deliver them to their neighbors.
3. The concept of "hidden miracles" in Hanukkah inspired the friends to reflect on the hidden miracles in their own lives—unexpected acts of kindness and moments of personal growth. An example of a hidden miracle in one's life might be a time when a stranger helped when you were in need.
4. The friends celebrated the final night of Hanukkah by lighting the menorah, sharing their own stories, and singing traditional songs. It was special to them because it allowed them to connect with their heritage and each other.
5. "The Hanukkah Book Club Adventures" strengthened the friends' bonds and enriched their lives by bringing them together to explore and celebrate the diverse traditions and hidden miracles of Hanukkah, inspiring new customs and deepening their sense of community and heritage.
