

Name _____

Cruise Ship Mystery

Short Answer Key

1. Lisa was motivated to investigate the mystery on the cruise because she overheard a hushed conversation between two crew members, James and Maria, which made her curious about what was happening on the ship.
2. Lisa and her family contributed to solving the mystery on the cruise by discreetly interviewing other passengers and crew members, piecing together clues, and sharing their findings with Captain Rodriguez.
3. They discovered a trail of clues that led them to believe there was a thief on board, including missing supplies and hidden compartments in the ship's storage areas.
4. Captain Rodriguez reacted to the Johnsons' assistance by being grateful for their detective work, and with their help, he was able to identify the thief among the crew.
5. The cruise ended for the Johnson family with special recognition from Captain Rodriguez for their detective work. They returned home with an unforgettable adventure filled with mystery and teamwork.

