

Name _____

Timeless Tale

Short Answer Key

1. The book's structure is fun because one event leads to another in a looping pattern, keeping the story exciting.
2. The mouse's playful and curious nature makes the story exciting because he is always exploring and trying new things.
3. Young readers relate to the story because they go to school too, and they recognize things like backpacks, recess, and lunch.
4. An example of humor is when the mouse fills up an entire notebook in just a few seconds, which is an exaggerated and funny idea.
5. The book encourages imagination by making kids think about what would happen if animals went to school and created fun adventures.
