

Name _____

Timeless Terror

Short Answer Key

1. He warns that the wishes come true but with terrible consequences.
2. Mr. White's wish for money comes true, but only because Herbert dies, showing that fate twists wishes in unexpected ways.
3. The slow, heavy knocking builds fear because no one knows what is on the other side.
4. The fact that nothing is there after the final wish suggests that the unknown is more terrifying than what is seen.
5. It reminds people to think carefully about their choices and how they might affect their future.

